PARTNER

SCHILLER DUCANTO & FLECK LLP

Gregory C. Maksimuk has devoted his entire 17-year professional career to helping high-net-worth clients involved in complex divorces move their cases efficiently toward resolution and achieve the best possible outcomes. “I believe in strategic, planned, aggressive advocacy, and specialize in the resolution of complex family law and divorce matters, including financial and parenting matters,” he says. Maksimuk skillfully guides—and stands by—his clients throughout the process so they can achieve their goals. He is recognized by Illinois Super Lawyers, Leading Lawyers, and Best Lawyers for his accomplishments in family law. His goal is to provide stability to his clients during the turbulent divorce process. Maksimuk knew he wanted to be a lawyer at an early age, and it wasn’t until he started practicing law that he knew he wanted to work in family law. “From my first family law case, I knew this was something I was destined to do,” he says. Maksimuk has been recognized as a Top Trial Lawyer Under 40 and by the LawDragon 500 for his litigation skills in the family law arena. He received a J.D. from the John Marshall Law School and a Bachelor of Science degree from Bradley University. Given his prowess as a strategic litigator and involvement in the community, Maksimuk has also held a number of leadership roles throughout his career in various organizations, including CASA, whose work is focused on abused and neglected children. Through his dedicated and impactful volunteer work, he has established a prominent presence within and beyond the confines of the courtroom and legal community, surpassing his competitors.
